

2018 National Shared Mobility Summit

Volunteer Application

Key Dates

Applications Due: February 15, 2018

Applications for volunteering will be available for a limited pool of applicants. All volunteers will get free registration to the conference on the days they are available to volunteer. Preference will go to volunteers who are available all three days of the summit (March 12-14).

Eligible applicants include public-sector employees; students; advocacy group or community-based organization staff or volunteers focusing on shared mobility; or other individuals focusing on shared mobility or alternative transportation as part of their primary work.

Applications are due by February 15, 2018.

Selected volunteers will be given a promotion code to register for the conference. All selected volunteers must attend a volunteer orientation and venue walk through in March. Applicants must meet the basic qualifications:

- Demonstrate an interest the area of transportation, planning, equity, or related field;
- Be registered as a conference attendee through the volunteer code prior to the conference;
- Be available for the volunteer orientation.
